

Lonzell Wilson (Soupy Splitpea) is having a blast on this hilarious show. He was most recently in The Triangle Factory Fire Project with Fearless Productions. In addition to community theater (other roles include the Captain in The Glass Slipper, East in Almost, Maine, Charlie Sneed in The Homecoming and Officer O'Hara in Arsenic and Old Lace), he's a human resources director. Lonzell would like to thank Bill for the opportunity, his wife Judy for her support, and God for all His blessings.
